個人簡介 Self-introduction:

Currently a year 2 medical student at the University of Hong Kong. A collaborative, responsible person, a current student ambassador of HKUMed. An analytical, effective communicator, participated in Youth Forums in United Nations, I am truly passionate about staying in the incredible community of WFJLPS- my primary school days are the years that shaped me to become a confident and effective communicator. With my unique experiences in medicine, I am looking forward to a productive and successful year ahead with the alumni experience.

政綱 Election statement:

I believe in the power of our alumni network and its potential to make a positive impact in both WFJLPS and our lives. If elected, I will bring my skills and experiences as a medical student to the committee to enforce the values of wisdom, faith and love. As our school motto suggests, WFJLPS is committed to holistic personal development; and so I believe that I am able to bring a unique perspective towards various initiatives by the alumni association of WFJLPS, such as personal development talks and other activities. I am a communicative and collaborative person, and I believe in the power of collective leadership in order to meet our goals of creating a vibrant, collaborative alumni network.
